Fuga.

A musical score page featuring a single melodic line on a five-line staff. The notes are primarily eighth notes, with several sixteenth-note grace patterns (trills or grace figures) indicated by red markings above the staff. These markings include 'v' for vibrato, 'п' for grace note, and 'п' with a vertical stroke for a specific grace figure. The music is set in common time, with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The notes are black, except for the red grace note markings.

Allegro

A horizontal strip of musical manuscript paper showing a single measure of music. The measure begins with a sharp sign (F#) and contains two eighth-note pairs. The first pair has a grace note above the first note. The second pair has a grace note above the first note. The measure ends with a vertical bar line.

This image shows a horizontal strip of musical manuscript paper. It features a single staff with five lines and four spaces. The notes are represented by black stems and heads. Red ink has been used to mark specific notes: a 'V' is written above the first note, a 'П' (P) is written above the second note, a '4' is written above the third note, another 'П' is written above the fourth note, and another '4' is written above the fifth note. The notes themselves are distributed across the staff, with some appearing on the lines and others in the spaces.

УП УП УП Г

A handwritten musical score page showing measures 1 and 2. The score consists of two systems of music. Measure 1 starts with a bass note followed by a treble note. Measure 2 begins with a bass note. Red numbers 1, 2, and 3 are written above the notes in measure 1. Red numbers 1, 2, 3, and 4 are written above the notes in measure 2.

A musical score page featuring a single staff with multiple measures. The staff consists of five horizontal lines. Various note heads and rests are distributed across the staff. Above certain notes and rests, there are red markings, specifically the letter 'P'. These markings are positioned above the first two notes of the first measure, the first note of the second measure, the first note of the third measure, the first note of the fourth measure, and the first note of the fifth measure.

A horizontal strip of a handwritten musical manuscript. It features a single staff with five lines and four spaces. The music consists of various note heads, some with stems and some without, indicating different rhythmic values and pitch levels. There are also several small red marks or ink smudges scattered across the page.

A horizontal strip of a handwritten musical score. It features a single staff with six measures of music. The first measure has a 'C' clef, a common time signature, and a key signature of one sharp. The notes are primarily eighth notes. Red numbers are written above the staff: '0' is at the beginning of the first measure; '1' is above the first note of the second measure; '1' is above the first note of the third measure; and '4 4 4 4' is above the first four notes of the fourth measure.

A photograph of a handwritten musical score page. The page shows two systems of music. The first system (measures 1-2) has red numbers 1 and 2 placed above specific notes. The second system (measures 3-4) also has red numbers 1 and 2 placed above notes. The notation is in common time, with various note heads and stems.

A horizontal strip of a handwritten musical score. It features several measures of music on a staff with a key signature of two sharps. The notes are represented by short vertical strokes. Above the staff, there are three red numbers: '1' at the beginning of the first measure, '2' above the second measure, and '4' at the end of the fourth measure.

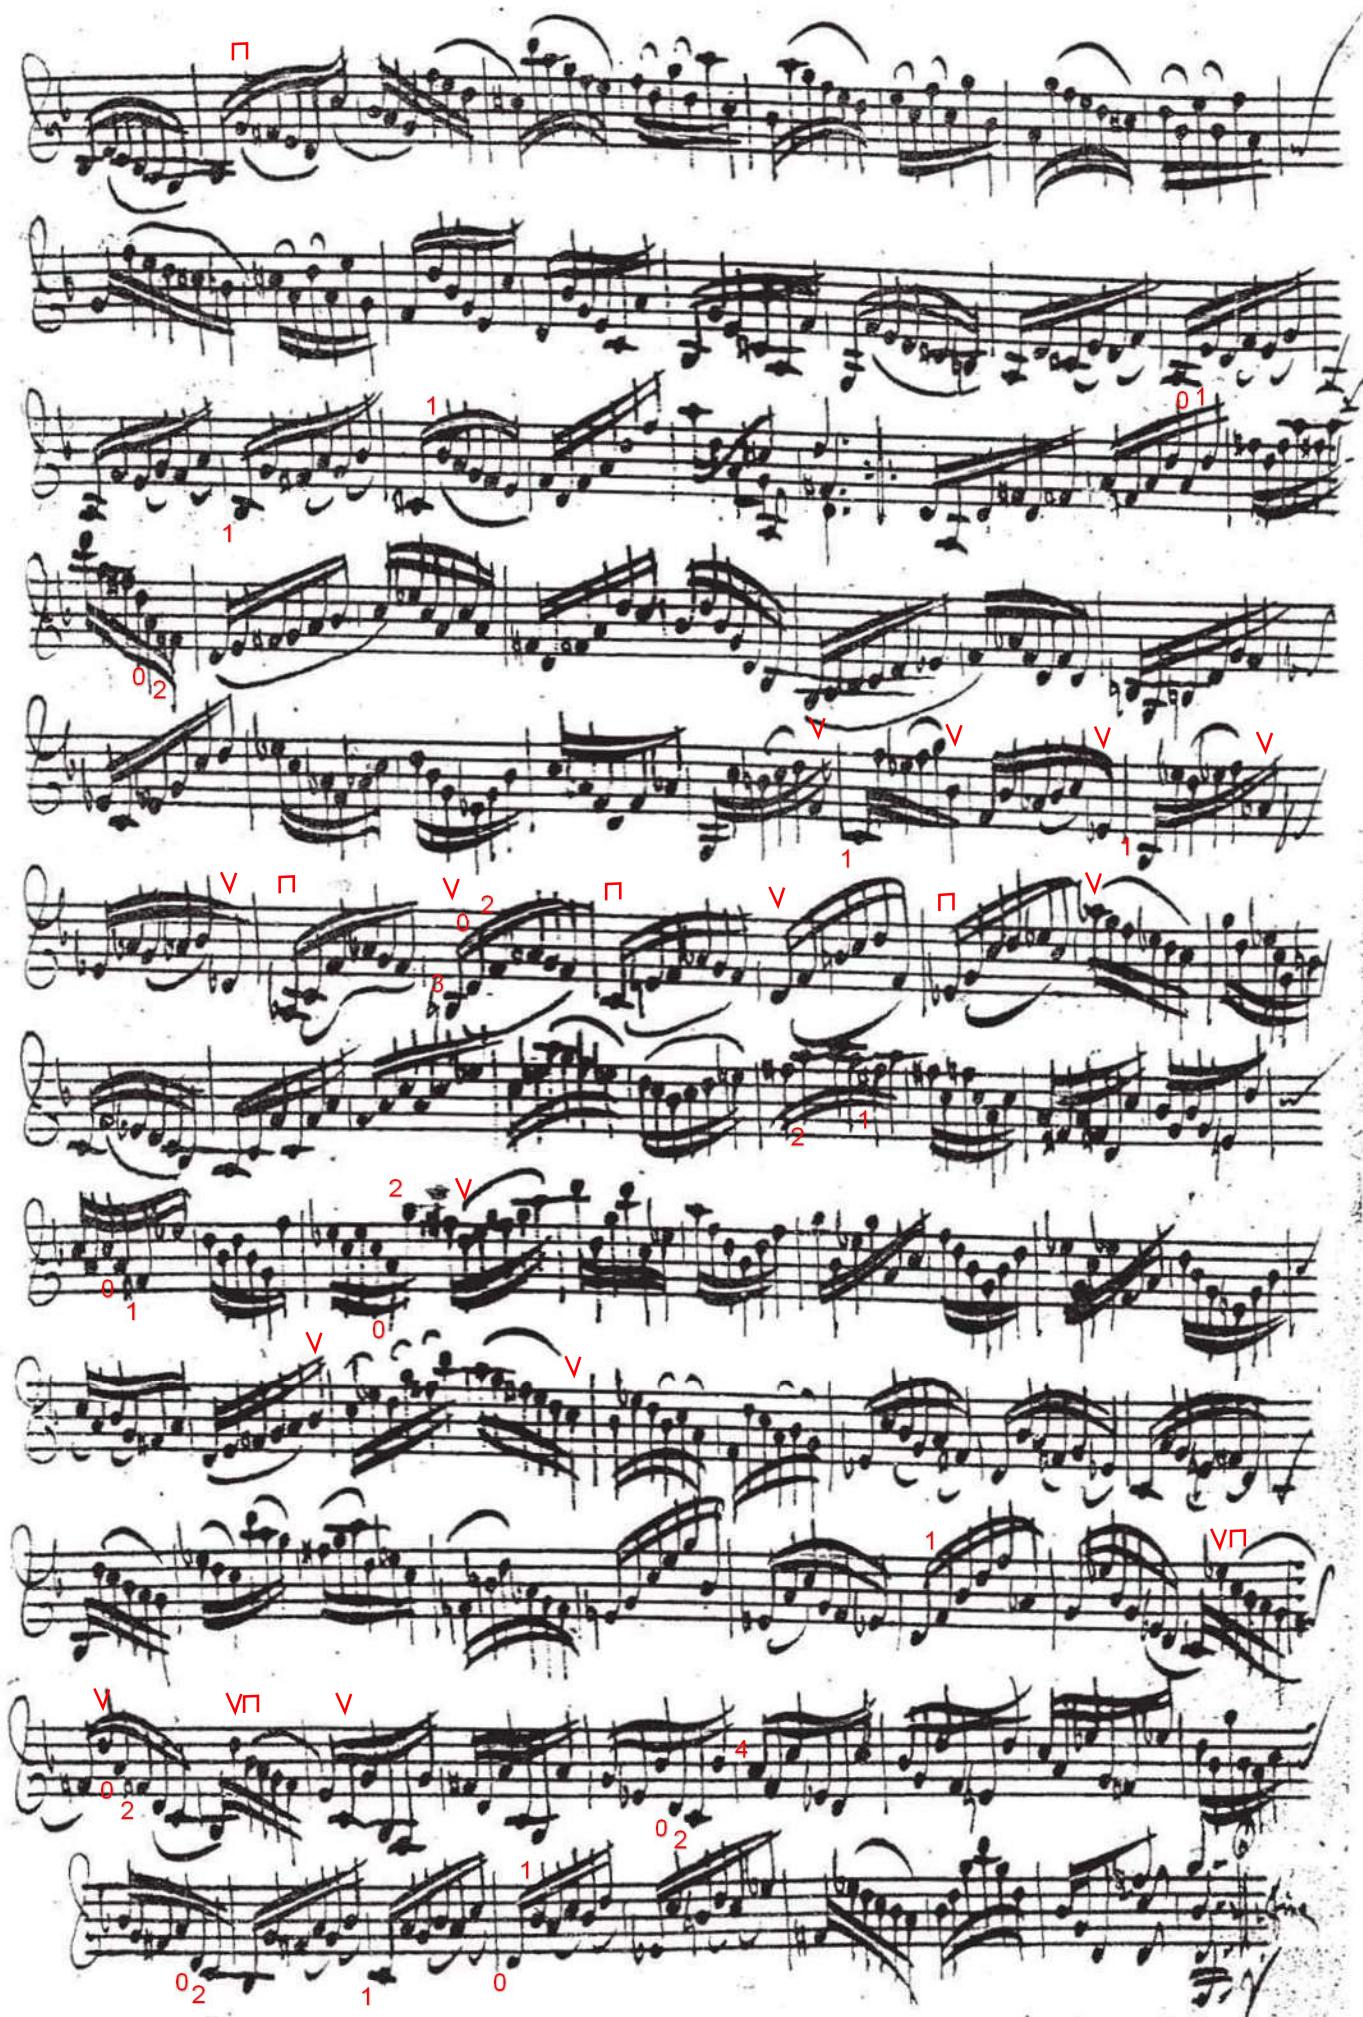

A musical score page showing a staff with various notes and rests. A red number '2' is placed near the end of the staff.

This image shows a page of handwritten musical notation on five staves. The notation is primarily in black ink, with red ink used for specific markings. These markings include:

- Dynamics: Red 'P' (piano) and red 'V' (forte) symbols.
- Note Heads: Red outlines around some note heads, particularly in the first and second staves.
- Numbers: Red numbers placed above or below notes, such as '1', '2', '3', '4', and '0'. In the fourth staff, there is also a red '(D)'.

The musical notation consists of five staves, each with a different clef (e.g., bass clef, tenor clef). The notes are represented by various shapes: solid black, hollow black, solid white, and hollow white. Rests are also present. The overall appearance is a mix of standard musical notation and experimental markings.
