The image shows two staves of handwritten musical notation. The top staff is labeled "Sarabande" and the bottom staff is labeled "Double". The notation consists of vertical stems with small horizontal strokes indicating pitch and rhythm. Red numbers are written above and below the stems to indicate fingerings and possibly stroke counts. The "Sarabande" staff has six lines of notation, and the "Double" staff has five lines of notation.

Tempo di Borea.

A handwritten musical score for a string quartet (two violins, viola, cello) on ten staves. The music is in common time and consists of two systems. Red ink is used to add fingerings (1, 2, 3, 4, V, VP, PV, P) and bowing markings (up, down, horizontal strokes) above and below the notes. The first system ends with a repeat sign and a '2' above it. The second system ends with a '1' above a repeat sign. The score includes dynamic markings like 'f' and 'ff' and various slurs and grace notes.

Double.

A handwritten musical score for Double Bass (Cello) on ten staves. The score consists of ten staves of music, each with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a time signature of common time (indicated by a 'C'). The music is written in a cursive style with various slurs and grace notes. Red ink has been used to add performance markings and annotations throughout the score. These markings include:

- Arabic numerals (1, 2, 3, 4) placed above or below specific notes and slurs.
- The letter 'V' placed above or below notes and slurs.
- The letters 'П' (P) and 'У' (U) placed above or below notes and slurs.
- Red numbers and letters placed directly on the musical staff, such as '0 3' above a note in the first staff, 'V' above a note in the second staff, 'П П П У' above a group of notes in the third staff, and 'П П' above a group of notes in the fourth staff.

Стига.

This image shows a handwritten musical score for a string quartet, consisting of four staves. The music is written in a cursive style with various slurs and grace notes. Red ink has been used to add numerous annotations, likely for rehearsal purposes. These annotations include:

- Hand positions: 'П' (Position) and 'ВП' (Position Change) are indicated above or below the staff, often with a number (1, 2, 3, 4) to specify the finger or position.
- Tempo markings: 'V' (Vivace) and 'ПУ' (Piu Un poco) are placed near specific measures.
- Dynamic markings: 'П' (pianissimo), 'ПУ' (pianississimo), and 'V' (fortissimo) are scattered throughout the score.
- Measure numbers: Some measures have small numbers (e.g., 1, 2, 3, 4) written above them.

The score includes several fermatas and rests, and the overall style is that of a traditional string quartet piece with added performance instructions.

A handwritten musical score for piano, consisting of ten staves of music. The music is written in black ink on white paper. Red ink is used to add various annotations, including:

- Hand Position Markers: Red letters "V" and "P" are placed above the staves to indicate hand positions. "V" typically indicates the left hand and "P" indicates the right hand.
- Fingerings: Numerical fingerings such as "1", "2", "3", "4", "0", and "1" are placed above specific notes and chords to guide the performer.
- Dynamic Markers: Red letters "V" and "P" are also used as dynamic markings, often appearing near the beginning of a staff or after a measure rest.
- Technical Instructions: Some staves begin with "02" or "2", which likely refer to the initial position of the hands on the keyboard.

The music itself consists of standard musical notation with black notes on five-line staves. The tempo is indicated by the instruction "V. S. molto presto" at the bottom right of the page.

V. S. molto presto

A handwritten musical score for piano, featuring two staves of music with various dynamics and performance instructions written in red ink. The score includes measures with eighth and sixteenth notes, as well as rests. Red annotations provide specific guidance for playing, such as dynamic markings like 'V' and 'П' (forte and piano), and performance techniques like '1', '2', '3', and '4' placed above or below notes. The score begins with a forte dynamic (V) and includes a section marked 'Adante' with a piano dynamic (П). The right-hand staff concludes with a dynamic marking 'V' followed by a signature 'V' and 'П'.

Partia 2^{da} a Violino solo senza Basso..

Corrente

A handwritten musical score for two voices, consisting of ten staves of music. The music is written in black ink on five-line staff paper. Red ink is used to add various annotations, including:

- Voices: The top voice is labeled "V" and the bottom voice is labeled "П".
- Tempo: The word "Adagio" is written at the bottom right.
- Measure Numbers: Measure numbers are placed above the staves, such as "0 1 3" in the first measure and "4" in the fourth measure.
- Hand Movements: Hand positions are indicated by letters "V" and "П" with numbers 1, 2, 3, or 4, often accompanied by arrows pointing to specific notes or groups of notes. For example, "V 1" points to a note in the first measure, and "П 4" points to a note in the eighth measure.
- Dynamic Markings: Some red markings resemble dynamic markings like "p" (pianissimo) or "f" (fortissimo), though they are not standard musical terms.

Sarabanda.

Handwritten musical score for Sarabanda. The score consists of six staves of music for a string instrument. Red ink has been used to add fingerings and bowing markings. Fingerings include numbers 1 through 4 above or below the notes, and letters 'V' and 'P'. Bowing markings are represented by diagonal strokes under the strings. The first staff begins with a 'P' over a note, followed by 'VV' and 'V' over subsequent notes. The second staff starts with 'V' over a note, followed by 'VV' and 'V' over the next two notes. The third staff begins with 'V' over a note, followed by 'VV' and 'V' over the next two notes. The fourth staff begins with 'V' over a note, followed by 'VV' and 'V' over the next two notes. The fifth staff begins with 'V' over a note, followed by 'VV' and 'V' over the next two notes. The sixth staff begins with 'V' over a note, followed by 'VV' and 'V' over the next two notes.

Giga.

Handwritten musical score for Giga. The score consists of five staves of music for a string instrument. Red ink has been used to add fingerings and bowing markings. The fifth staff begins with 'V' over a note, followed by 'VV' and 'V' over the next two notes.

accord...

The musical score consists of ten staves of handwritten musical notation. The notation includes various note heads, stems, and rests. Red ink has been used to add several types of markings:

- Stroking: Red 'V' marks are placed above many notes, indicating a downward stroke. Some 'V' marks have numbers below them, such as '1', '2', '3', '4', '0', and '3'. There are also some 'V' marks without numbers.
- Slurs: Red slurs are drawn over groups of notes, often connecting notes with the same red 'V' marking.
- Arrows: Red arrows point to specific notes or groups of notes, often pointing upwards or to the right.
- Text: Red text labels like 'П' (P) and 'ПП' (PP) are placed above certain notes, likely indicating dynamic levels.
- Brackets: Red brackets group together notes, particularly in the lower staves.

The music is written in a style that suggests it is intended for a brass instrument, possibly tuba or bassoon, given the nature of the strokes and slurs.

A handwritten musical score consisting of two staves. The top staff is for a treble clef instrument and the bottom staff is for a bass clef instrument. Both staves use common time. The music is written in black ink on five-line staff paper.

The score features several measures of music with various notes and rests. Red ink has been used to add numerous markings, likely indicating fingerings or performance techniques. These markings include:

- Hand positions: "П" (P) and "V" (V) are frequently used, often with numbers 1, 2, 3, or 4 above them to indicate which fingers to use on specific notes.
- Slurs: Some slurs are marked with red "Y" characters.
- Dynamic markings: "ПП" (PP), "ППП" (PPP), and "ПППП" (PPPP) are used to indicate forte dynamics.
- Other symbols: "X", "0", and "1" are also present as markings.

At the bottom right of the page, there is a handwritten instruction: "1. T. volti pregi."

Sonata a Violino solo senza Basso.

Allegro.

This image shows a handwritten musical score for violin solo. The score consists of ten staves of music, each with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature. Red ink has been used to add various markings to the music, including:

- Arabic numerals (1, 2, 3, 4) placed above or below specific notes and rests.
- The letters 'V' and 'P' placed above or below notes and rests, likely indicating performance techniques such as vibrato or portamento.
- A circled '2' located near the end of the fourth staff.
